

Latest News

8 April, 2024

Central Bank collaborates with the Ministry of Digital Transformation and Unified Payments Interface (UPI), India

On April 6, 2024, representatives from the Central Bank's Management Team as well as senior officials from the Ministry of Digital Transformation met with a team from the Centre for Digital Public Infrastructure (CDPI) and a representative of the of the National Payments Corporation of India (NPCI) International Payments Ltd. (NIPL).

The meeting facilitated the sharing of insights about the implementation of digital payments, digital identity and other digital public infrastructure and potential applications to the Trinidad and Tobago financial landscape.

Central Bank Governor Alvin Hilare and Wayne Nakhid, National Chief Digital Officer, Ministry of Digital Transformation (fifth from right) along with representatives of the Central Bank of Trinidad and Tobago, the Ministry of Digital Transformation, the Centre for Digital Public Infrastructure and the National Payments Corporation of India (NPCI) International Payments Ltd. (NIPL).