INTERNATIONAL MUSEUM DAY 2019

Museums as Cultural Hubs the Future of Tradition

The Central Bank Museum will be open on Saturday May 18, 2019 in celebration of International Museum Day and the public is invited to join us for our presentation on the theme of “Museums as Cultural Hubs: The Future of Tradition”.

Come browse our new, interactive museum and take part in some of Trinidad and Tobago's cultural traditions: Storytelling, basket weaving with the Blind Welfare Association; bélé dancing with the Central Bank dance troupe; tassa drumming, steelpan, and stilt walking with moko jumbies, and sample some of our traditional local sweets. There will also be a launch and sale of My Trinbago Colouring Book by Keri Nicholas Reefer.
