

Visit Request Form

The Central Bank Museum welcomes all visitors – schools, universities, tourists, community and other private groups.

Groups that number over 15 persons are required to complete this Visit Request Form for museum guided or self-guided visits. Guided visits are only done on request. Appointments for group visits should be made no less than two (2) weeks in advance for guided tours and no less than three (3) days for self-guided tours. A separate form must be used for each visit. We will do our best to accommodate your request; however, please note that your visit is not confirmed until you have received email confirmation.
