Intergovernmental Group of Twenty-Four on International Monetary Affairs and Development

October 11, 2022

Washington, D.C.

The Intergovernmental Group of Twenty-Four on International Monetary Affairs and Development released its Official Communiqué on October 11, 2022 following the conclusion of their one hundred and eighth meeting, held in Washington. The G-24 group meets bi-annually in April and October each year.

The October 2022 communiqué outlines the core tenets of the discussions held and brings into focus the predominant issues affecting global economic outlook and development.
