<sup>1</sup> The Quarterly Index of Economic Activity is a base-weighted Laspeyres quantity index computed using indicators of production or economic activity. For each sub-sector, relevant indicators of economic activity are used to compile the respective sub-indices. The sectoral sub-indices are then weighted to derive the sectoral indices and the overall index of economic activity. This Index is used to estimate short-term changes in economic activity, which is essential in the conduct of monetary policy. Further details can be accessed in the Economic Bulletin, March 2017 (Box 2, Pages 19-20 - <https://www.central-bank.org.tt/sites/default/files/reports/ECONOMIC%20BULLETIN%20March%202017.pdf>) as well as in the Public Education Statement published on the Bank's website (<https://www.central-bank.org.tt/sites/default/files/latest-news/Public%20Education%20Statement%20-%20GDP.pdf>).

QUARTERLY INDEX OF ECONOMIC ACTIVITY

Quarterly Index of Economic Activity (QIEA) – This is a base-weighted Laspeyres quantity index computed using indicators of production or economic activity. For each sub-sector, relevant indicators of economic activity are used to compile the respective sub-indices. This Index is used to estimate short-term changes in economic activity, which is essential in the conduct of monetary policy.

A deficit occurs when imports and income payable exceed the exports and income receivable.

Financial Account Net Outflow (+) / Net inflow (-) – Taking into account the acquisition and disposal of financial assets and the incurrence and repayment of liabilities, a net outflow means that, in net terms, the economy supplied funds to the rest of the world. A net inflow implies that, in net terms, the economy borrowed funds from the rest of the world.

Overall Surplus (+) / Deficit (-) – A surplus on the Balance of Payments arises when inflows associated with economic transactions of an economy with the rest of the world are higher than outflows. When outflows exceed inflows, a deficit occurs.

MUTUAL FUNDS

Mutual Funds – This is a professionally managed type of collective investment scheme that pools money from shareholders and invests in a group of assets, aligned to a stated set of objectives.
