THE NATIONAL
FINANCIAL LITERACY
PROGRAMME
IT'S YOUR MONEY – KNOW IT TO GROW IT

The Central Bank of Trinidad and Tobago's National Financial Literacy Programme (NFLP) was established in 2007. It is committed to empowering citizens with the skills and knowledge needed to make informed financial decisions through its financial literacy initiatives. The NFLP provides free financial literacy resources and tools to members of the public.

Services

The NFLP offers free services to members of the public. These include, presentations and or booths at public events and group financial literacy sessions covering a wide range of topics such as:

Resources

The NFLP's wide range of digital resources including interactive educational tools, games and resources are available at <https://www.central-bank.org.tt/nflp>
