4. Table A provides the range of administrative fines applicable to the category of the breach and the corresponding asset size for Financial Institutions listed under paragraphs (a) to (k) and total annual income of individuals who are registered as investment advisers under paragraph (g) of the definition of Financial Institution under section 2(1) of the Act.

5. The relevant Supervisory Authority for Financial Institutions listed under paragraphs (a) to (k) and individuals who are registered as investment advisers under paragraph (g) of the definition of Financial Institution under section 2(1) of the Act shall consider Table A, and—

- (a) in the case of a Financial Institution with asset size greater than one hundred million dollars, calculate the administrative fine based applying the formula below:

Where “m” is the slope or rate of change between the maximum and minimum fine for the asset category considering the asset size of the largest and smallest Financial Institution in the asset category and represented as follows:

$$m = \frac{\left\{ \begin{array}{l} \text{Maximum Fine for the} \\ \text{asset category based on} \\ \text{the severity of the} \\ \text{contravention} \end{array} \right\} - \left\{ \begin{array}{l} \text{Minimum Fine for the} \\ \text{asset category based on the} \\ \text{severity of the} \\ \text{contravention} \end{array} \right\}}{\left\{ \begin{array}{l} \text{Maximum Asset Size of} \\ \text{the Financial Institutions} \\ \text{within the asset category} \end{array} \right\} - \left\{ \begin{array}{l} \text{Minimum Asset Size of} \\ \text{the Financial Institutions} \\ \text{within the asset category} \end{array} \right\}}$$

y = the Minimum Fine for the asset category based on the severity of the contravention; and x = the Minimum Asset Size of the Financial Institutions within the asset category.

- (b) in the case of a Financial Institution with an asset size that is less than or equal to ten million, calculate the administrative fine based on the fixed fine specified in Table A.
