

REMINDER: DEADLINE APPROACHING FOR REDEMPTION OF $100 COTTON NOTES

The Central Bank of Trinidad and Tobago wishes to remind the public that the $100 cotton note ceases to be legal tender from January 1, 2020 and only the new $100 polymer note will remain as legal tender from this date. All persons and organisations must take responsibility for ensuring that their $100 cotton notes are exchanged on time.

Redemption of the $100 cotton notes can be done either through commercial banks or the Central Bank. Please check with your commercial bank for details on opening hours. The Central Bank has extended its working hours to facilitate the exchange from 8:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. on weekdays to December 31, 2019 and on Saturday December 28 and Sunday December 29, from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

The Central Bank will also operate through the Unit Trust Corporation Office in Scarborough, Tobago on Saturday December 28, Sunday December 29 and Monday December 30, 2019 from 8:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.

REMEMBER: IT IS YOUR RESPONSIBILITY TO EXCHANGE YOUR $100 COTTON NOTES ON TIME.

There are very specific conditions for exchange of $100 cotton notes after December 31, 2019 from the Central Bank. Details are available in advertisements in the daily newspapers, on the Central Bank's website www.central-bank.org.tt and by emailing info@central-bank.org.tt
